

Adam Krueger, MBA, ATC, LAT

Adam Krueger connects athletes of all levels in the community with injury prevention information and specialty services offered by Cardinal Glennon SportsCare.

Adam completed his undergraduate education at Carroll University where he received his BS in Athletic Training. He went on to receive an MBA at Lindenwood University where he also serviced as a graduate assistant athletic trainer. He then went on to work for many professional sports organizations including the St. Louis Rams, Arizona Cardinals and the St. Louis BattleHawks. He was also the Head Athletic Trainer at Edgewood College. He has previously provided athletic training services at one of our local high schools with SSM Health Sports Medicine.

To contact Adam call 314-577-5640 Ext. 2