

Amanda Sullivan, MS, ATC, LAT

Amanda is an Outreach Liaison for SSM Health Cardinal Glennon SportsCare.

Amanda connects young athletes and teams in the community with injury prevention information and specialty services offered by SSM Health Cardinal Glennon SportsCare.

She attended Southern Illinois University Carbondale for her undergraduate education, where she received her bachelor's degree in physical education specializing in athletic training.

Amanda went on to graduate school, where she earned her master's degree in sports psychology and biomechanics from Illinois State University. While attending graduate school, she worked as the head athletic trainer for the softball team. Since graduating she has worked at the college and high school level as an athletic trainer. Most recently, she was the physician extender for an area sports medicine orthopedic surgeon.
